9-Changes

- Requested by the client :

the client may request a change of booking (date and/or type of accommodation) subject to availability. Bookings cannot be carried forward to the following season. If the price of the new booking is higher, the difference will be due by the client. If the price of the new booking is less than the original booking, the difference will be paid back to the Client. The Client is hereby reminded that in the event of a booking change, any bargain offers that may have been made after his/her original booking will not be applicable to the new booking. The date of the original booking will serve as the reference date. If the Domaine du Koukano is unable to satisfy the client's request for a booking change, the original booking will apply, unless the client decides to cancel.

- Requested by the Domaine du Koukano :

the company may need to change the booking before the starting date. In that event, the company will notify the client of any changes in writing, as promptly and as clearly as possible. Any effect on the price of the booking shall be specified when notifying the changes. The client must inform the Domaine du Koukano of his/her response to the new proposal within the timeline specified.

o The client may cancel the booking. In that case the Domaine du Koukano will reimburse any payments that the client may have already made (including any booking management fees and insurance as the case may be) ;

o The client accept the modified booking. If the change results in a reduction or increase in the price of the booking, the company will either refund the difference (if the price is lower) or meet the extra cost (if the price is higher)

- If the Client fails to respond within the timeline specified, the company will automatically cancel the booking.

10- Cancellation

Due to the client : if the booking is cancelled by the client

- More than 12 weeks prior to the start of the stay, the company undertakes to reimburse any sums already paid, minus a set management fee of €50.
- Between 12 weeks and 9 weeks prior to the start of the stay, the company undertakes to reimburse 50 % (fifty per cent) of the booking price. The booking management fee included.
- Less than 9 weeks prior to start of the stay, the company reserves the right to retain all the sums already paid, management fee included.
- If the client has not paid the full booking amount less than 4 weeks prior to the start of the stay, the company will consider that the booking has been cancelled by the client and reserves the right to retain any sums already paid, management fee included.

Due to the company : the company may cancel the booking for whatever reason before the start of the stay.

In this case, all the sums already paid by the client will be refunded plus compensation equal to the penalty payment that the client would have had to pay if the cancellation had been due to the client at the same date (see above).
Exceptional circumstances : if the booking is cancelled by the Domaine du Koukano or by the client prior to the start of the stay due to exceptional circumstances beyond the company's or the client's control either on a near the point of destination and having a significant effect on the performance of the agreement, the full booking price will be reimbursed but no additional compensation will be due by the Domaine du Koukano.

Assignment

The client may for a reasonable price ask the company for permission to assign his/her booking to another person who meets all the conditions required for the said booking. The client and his/her assignee shall be jointly liable for the payment of the balance of any sums due, plus any charges, fees or other additional costs that may be incurred due to the assignment.

11 – Cancellation insurance

A cancellation or interruption insurance is proposed to the Client. The client is free to subscribe to this insurance coverage with the Gritchen affinity insurance company. The insurance premium must be fully paid up on booking the stay and is not refundable unless the client avails himself/herself of the provisions applicable to insurance policy subscription cooling-off periods.
